What you get:

• The opportunity to interview top film talent at red carpet premieres, press Q&As and press junkets
• Attendance at film festivals and other exciting film events to report on them for Into Film
• Training in film appreciation, film journalism, interview techniques, and presenting to camera skills
• Mentoring and support to help you become a great Young Reporter
• The chance to develop your own ideas, write film reviews and articles, and record videos to be released on Into Film’s youth voice platforms
• Hands-on experiences, behind-the-scenes access and supported learning about how the film industry works
• The chance to join Into Film’s alumni scheme once your two years on the programme have come to an end.

As a Young Reporter you will be expected to:

• Have a passion for film and a desire to share it with others
• Be the youth voice of Into Film
• Attend training days (chaperoned by a parent/guardian). You will need to arrange your own travel to the training days, but Into Film will cover the expenses
• Be prepared to report on behalf of Into Film at events such as film premieres, red carpet interviews and press junkets, film festivals and lots more
• Obtain permission from your school and parent/guardian to attend a minimum of one assignment per term and one training event per year that the programme runs for (this can vary depending on school commitments, such as exams)
• Be willing to contribute creative ideas and film reviews to be published on the Into Film website
• Commit to the programme for two years running Autumn 2017 to Autumn 2019.
How to apply:

Film yourself! We want you to send us a vlog (video-blog) that is around 2–3 minutes long. You don’t need to worry about editing, or making it too fancy, we just want to see you. It can be filmed on any device – even your mobile phone.

Choose from one of the following topics:

- An upcoming film you’re really excited to see in the cinema
- A film that made an impact on you growing up
- Or make up your own – we’re keen to see your ideas!

Check out our ‘Get Into Film’ YouTube Channel to see what we’ve been up to and get inspiration! www.youtube.com/user/getintofilm

Please be sure to fill in all the details on this form and return alongside your video submission.

The deadline for applications is: Monday 2 October at 12 midday

Sending your application

Please print out and fill in the application form on the next page. Once you have completed your written application, scan it and send it along with your video by visiting www.wetransfer.com (you don’t need to subscribe). Click the ‘Add files’ button on the left hand side and select the clip you want to send, then click open. In the box underneath called ‘Friend’s email’, enter elinor.walpole@intofilm.org and enter your own email address in the box below that. In the final box you can write a short message to accompany your application. Then click transfer to send the clip – this may take a few seconds. Once it has sent, you will receive a confirmation email.

If you need any help at all please email elinor.walpole@intofilm.org or call 03303137841. You must also complete this form and send it alongside your video.

Alternatively post your applications to:
FREEPOST RTA-BAZG-CSZZ FILMCLUB,
Into Film, Damaso House,
31 Islington Green, London N1 8DU
